Discovery, he promised to go with the officers to San Pedro and point out the men. Having, however, once had a narrow escape from the fury of the San Pedro union men, he thought "discretion the better part of valor," and did not show up last Saturday when Fred Smith and C. People. When the case was called, the names of the witnesses on either side were read, and all responded with the exception of Edward Carpenter, the prosecuting witness, who had not only failed to show up as he had promised on the trip to San Pedro, but now failed to appear against the men in court. Under these circumstances the pro-

This motion the defense court overruled, as the prisoners had been put to considerable expense and inconvenience in attending the trial, as had also their witnesses, and all having been compelled to come up from San Pedro. The motion for a continuance was denied, however, and the defense made up his mind to wait. When Fred turned the San Pedro officer walked up to him, drawing a warrant from his pocket put Smith under arrest, on a charge of larceny. Of course, such a charge was a surprise to Fred, as the man he had beautifully wallowed Sunday had brought on the fact himself, even to the extent of challenging further interference by himself or the standers, if Fred got away with him. T had a fair stand-up fight, and Fred went out ahead. With him the matter dropped, and he thought no more about beyond a feeling that he ought to have rested the fellow for interfering with an officer in the discharge of his duty. But

Fred said he feared there would be more trouble with the the arrest, but he was not to be scared by either threats or show of force. The matter of the quarrel between the owners and the sailors was nothing to him and that he would just as soon arrest ship-owners as he would the seamen if warrants for them were put into his hands to serve. The fight was none of his, but

Fred will go down on the first train morning, accompanied by his attorney Hugh J. Crawford, prepared to do his best to obtain a fair trial.

The Board of Trade Still Promoting Immigration.

At a regular meeting of the board of directors of the Los Angeles Board of Trade, held November 7th, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, there is a general act on the statute books of this State authorizing and empowering the Board of Supervisors of this and other counties—when in their judgment it will further the interests of their respective localities—to appropriate money from the County Treasury for the purpose of inducing immigration; and

Whereas, said act was approved March 17, 1887, and provided the sum of $1000 for that purpose; therefore be it

Resolved, by the directors of this Board of Trade, that the Honorable the Board of Supervisors of this county, be respectfully requested to make such an appropriation in the manner and amounts following to wit: Three hundred dollars for the current month of November, and $100 on the first of every month following, for the period of seven months, until the said fund of $1000 is exhausted.

Resolved, that, if our suggestion meets with the approval of the Honorable the Board of Supervisors, we respectfully request that said payments be made only to the order for the president of this Board, and by him paid out for the sale and exclusive purpose of supporting the Bureau of Free Information, an organization now existing in our city, under the management of E. R. Haines and having for its object the promotion of immigration to this city and county.

I hereby certify that the above is a true and correct copy of the resolution, as it appears upon the minutes of the meeting.

IN A TIDAL WAVE.

The Way Thousands Are Pouring Into Southern California.

The rush of travel over the Santa Fe route to Southern California continues enormous. Saturday morning a train came in with 841 passengers. Its engineer had run from La Junta, Col., to The Needles—about 600 miles—without rest, save what he got in waiting for that exploded engine to be removed from the track near Ash Fork, Ariz. The Santa Fe company has been running from 500 to 600 people a day in Kansas City, the passengers pouring in that much faster than they can be forwarded to California. As soon as sufficient passengers collect to fill an extra train, they are loaded into one and sent west. Meantime the company feeds and houses them at its own expense. They seldom have more than a day's delay in Kansas City. Every available car of every sort is pressed into service, and new cars are being built as fast as possible, but the company cannot get rolling stock or motive power enough to handle the stupendous rush of passenger business. Of these hordes of passengers, four out of every five are bound for Southern California.

WELL SENTENCED.

A Officer Finds That Assaulting an Officer Doesn't Pay.

J. M. Hines, who was arrested by Officer Bosqui Monday night, was yesterday brought before Police Judge Austin, charged with being drunk and resisting an officer. Hines is a heavy man, and when spoken to civilly by the officer, turned around and repaid the officer for his civility by brutally assaulting him and beating him over the head, inflicting a number of serious and painful bruises. Bosqui, however, brought the fellow in, having to use his club before being able to get the handcuffs on. At the trial, Hines excused himself by playing the "baby act," saying that he did not know what he was doing, and having never been in trouble before, hoped the judge would let him go this time. Judge Austin, after hearing the testimony, let the fellow go with a fine of $100. That amount of cash not being at his disposal, Hines was committed to jail for 100 days, and will probably by that time understand that an officer in the discharge of his duty is entitled to some protection.

Pullman Passengers.

The following Pullman passengers left yesterday on the 1:30 train: Mr. Ward, Mrs. Nancy Holmes, Mrs. R. V. Watts, Mr. Keeler, Mr. Newberger, J. C. Campbell, Miss Coppolino, H. L. Rockfield, Mrs. G. Cohn, A. Lee, C. Blanding, Mrs. E. H. Severn, J. S. Anthony.

Missionary Convention.

A convention in the interest of foreign missions will be held tomorrow at the First Presbyterian Church. The day sessions will begin at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. respectively, and a grand mass meeting will be held in the evening at 7:30 o'clock. A varied and interesting programme will be carried out by the ablest workers of this region—several experienced missionaries among them. A lunch will be served at the church at the noon recess. All friends of missions, of whatever denomination, are cordially invited.

Among recent arrivals from the East who have come to take up their residence in California are the following: Thomas T. Jones and family of six, Lemuel Jones.

...the party who accompanied Ralph E. Hoyt.

Notice of Appeal.

Notice of appeal was filed yesterday by defendants in the case of Mason C. Oden, George Oden and R. Smith vs. James Laughlin and Frederick Burke. The case is one in which plaintiffs claimed $234.50 salvage on lumber which they claim to have saved from the wreck of the St. Louis, February 15, 1887. A justice of the peace in Wilmington gave judgment for the plaintiffs, from which defendants now appeal to the Superior Court.

An Unlucky Character.

An experience with a woman who makes life a burden to everybody about her by her relentless insistence on continual fastness as the price of peace in her house is thus discussed by the New York Graphic: She has a painful doubt as to whether she is the most lovable being on the globe. She insists that everybody who comes within range shall contribute to strengthen her wavering conviction on this point. Any conversation in her presence that does not feed it wounds it. You cannot discuss Mr. Brown's pretty conservatory, because that is redacting on madam's house plants; you can't speak of Mrs. Green's beautiful housekeeping, because madam straightway points, because you are intimating that she is not domestic. The things that every young girl ought to be taught first, last, and all the time as a recipe for social success is to appear to efface herself.

Surveyor General Hammond has advertised for bids for surveying two and a half miles of township lines, two and a half miles of ranch lines and one-half mile of section lines to complete the survey of township 2 south, range 6 west, San Buenaventura meridian.

We have just completed arrangements with the advance agents of the Webster-Brady Company, that will appear commencing Monday, November 14th, at the Pavilion, by which all of our customers will be enabled to visit the entire performance, free.

Will each of our customers we will give a ticket that will admit the bearer to any part of the house, for any performance, either in the afternoon or evening. The company is a splendid one, and among their repertoire is the celebrated dramatization of Rider Haggard's novel, "She." The company open in After Dark on Monday, November 14th. We will commence distributing tickets for the performances on next Friday, November 11th. Every customer who buys $2 worth of goods from us will receive a complimentary ticket to the Pavilion, free.

We refer, by permission, to Messrs. McLain & Lehman, the advance agents of the company, for the requirements of the tickets. Headquarters Boot and Shoe House, 208 North Main street.

Important to Strangers.

There are a great many people arriving here every day who are in want of dry goods, and drop into the first place they find. Now the object of this article is to inform those for their own interest that if they will take the trouble or the cars and go to 308 S. Spring st., between Third and Fourth streets, to the elegant new Callahan block they will lay the first stone to the foundation of the fortune they will make in Los Angeles. Money they save on the first purchases they make, for the establishment most known as "The Callahan," although comparatively a new house, is doing a rushing business, owing to selling dry, fancy and general household goods at Eastern and San Francisco prices, and keeping a large assortment always on hand. Don't forget the name and number.

An Unfortunate Gentleman.

A prominent citizen of Pasadena called on us a day or two since and stated that he had been unfortunate in the loss of his last driving for the Garvanzo lot, but, unfortunately, in destroying a number of papers, the tickets were destroyed. We feel that we cannot, in justice to the balance of the ticket holders, give the proceeds to some charitable institution of this city. Another lot will be given away this month, and we hope the lucky winner will not destroy his ticket. Lewis Bros., 101 and 103, North Spring street.

Dissolution of Partnership.

Notice is hereby given that the copartnership heretofore existing between E. S. Tolle and S. O. Brown, under the firm name of the Los Angeles Machinery Depot, has this day been dissolved by mutual consent. Hereafter the business will be conducted by E. S. Tolle, to whom all payments must be made and bills rendered.

LA PRESA!

The Beautiful Swiss Village on Lake Como BEING REPRODUCED IN SAN DIEGO.

The most novel thing yet undertaken in the development of this southern country is now being done at LA PRESA, nine miles from San Diego. The plan is to reproduce in that delightful spot the counterpart of the celebrated Swiss village on Lake Como, in Northern Italy. To this end a railroad is being built to the place, and a fine modern hotel is to be erected at once. The situation is most delightful; far enough removed from the sea to escape rough winds, yet near enough to be always cool. With pure water, fine scenery, and the best of soil, LA PRESA is just the place to invest for a quick turn with big profits. LA PRESA is sure to grow rapidly, as it has all the elements to attract a select class of settlers.

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 8.—[Special.] Intense interest was manifested today in the municipal election, it being the first held under the new charter. The principal offices to be filled are Mayor, twelve Councilmen and City Marshal. The trades unions were organized against the Citizens' ticket, and the fight was very bitter. A prohibition ticket was in the field, but cut no figure. Several disgraceful fights occurred in Ward 3, the stronghold of the trades union element. Both sides claim a victory, but it is doubtful if the result will be known before tomorrow noon. Both tickets are badly scratched.

THE BENHAYON INQUEST.

Nothing Startling Developed Yesterday at the Investigation.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—[By the Associated Press.] No startling facts were developed in the Benhayon inquest which was resumed this afternoon. John Butler, the missing friend of Dimmig, whose identity the detectives had not been able to establish before, was present and examined, but his testimony developed nothing further than that Dimmig had tried to explain his position as a book agent for him. After a number of other witnesses had been examined the inquest adjourned till evening. In the Benhayon inquest, tonight Expert Hyde testified, giving his reasons for his belief as to the genuineness of the Benhayon letters. Detective Hogan, whose testimony has been eagerly looked for, related the details of the examination of Dimmig October 23d, at which time he was asked why he did not answer clearly on so many material points, to which Dimmig had replied that he was afraid he would say something that might get him into trouble. He gave testimony that would not tend to confirm the theory of suicide.

Shrouds for the Anarchists Being Made.

The Work of Erecting the Gallows to Begin Tomorrow.

A Loaded Dynamite Bomb Sent from San Francisco.

Affected Scene at a Meeting of Fielden and His Family—Parsons Writes a Long Letter to Schilling—No Hope for Ling.

By Telegram to The Times.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—[By the Associated Press.] Sheriff Matson said this afternoon that unless he hears from the Governor by tomorrow night the work of erecting the scaffold will be begun, as provided in the statutes. He will swear in a jury, and they and the lawyers in the case and a few press representatives will be the only ones allowed to witness the execution. It is understood that material for the shrouds was purchased today, and that the making of the shrouds will be proceeded with at once. Chief of Police Eberstadt says to the press that there need be no apprehension on the part of the people, as the precautions taken by himself and aids are too elaborate to admit of any demonstration being made.

FIELDEN RELENTS.

Confesses His Wrong and Disavows the Anarchist Doctrine.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—[By the Associated Press.] In addition to the joint letter of Spies, Fielden and Schwab, deploring the loss of life at the Haymarket and disavowing the use of force, the former employees of Fielden have secured from him a separate letter to the Governor, confessing that he had been guilty of using extravagant language which he now regrets, and saying that he repents and disavows the loyalty to the doctrine that the wrongs of a class of society should be righted by violence. Judge Gary states that Attorney Inglish will have informed upon the application their views in the case. Lawyer Foster, acting for Schwab, has pursued a very similar course, and disavows the Haymarket. Whatever claims Schwab may have to a commutation from Messrs. Grinnell and Inglish, it may be said with confidence that Judge Gary will take no steps in favor of a commutation of any other of the condemned men.

PARSONS WRITES.

A Long Letter to Schilling, but No Request for Mercy.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—[By the Associated Press.] Instead of the individual letter which it was understood Parsons, the Anarchist, would write deploring, like Spies, Schwab and Fielden, the loss of life at the Haymarket and abjuring the use of force, he has addressed a long letter to a prominent Socialist, George Schilling, in which there is no reference whatever to the massacre at the Haymarket or the dynamite idea, but deals with a sketch of his own life, particularly as a leader of the newly liberated negroes during reconstruction in Texas. He disavows at length on the wage servitude of the whites and blacks alike. Schilling will read the letter in full at Gov. Oglesby's, if the latter will permit.

FRUIT AND SYMPATHY.

Young John Brown Sends Them a Basket of Apples.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—[By the Associated Press.] John Brown, son of the celebrated emancipator, sent eight boxes of grapes to each of the Anarchists, including Neebe, from "John Brown's vineyard." They reached the jail this morning with a message stating that the sender was a foe to monopoly and tyranny of any kind. Another search of the cells this morning was made, the only result being the finding of a red cord, three or four feet long, in Ling's cell. The cord was long and strong enough to have permitted the use of it for strangling purposes.

A 'FRISCO FRIEND.

A Loaded Bomb Sent to the Imprisoned Men.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—[By the Associated Press.] A loaded dynamite bomb was found this morning on the West Side, near a polling-place, marked San Francisco. It reached the jail at noon, addressed to "Messrs. Spies, Schwab and all the noble men and patriots misnamed Anarchists." It was handed up to Spies.

A. S. Foster, who was associated with Capt. Black in the defense of Fielden, before Judge Gary, has been retained to look after Fielden and Schwab's interests.

LING DOOMED.

Capt. Black Entertains No Hope for the Bomb Fiend.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—[By the Associated Press.] The last delegation to wait on the Governor with a petition of clemency for the condemned Anarchists left the city tonight. Capt. Black was asked if he had any real hope that the Governor would interfere with the sentence. He replied that he was quite confident that clemency would be extended to Schwab and Fielden, if not to the others. "Of course," said he, "there is no hope for Ling. He has signed his own doom."

Legislators Petition for Clemency.

SPRINGFIELD (Ill.), Nov. 8.—This afternoon the members of the Legislature who offer executive clemency to the condemned Anarchists endeavored to lay a petition before the Governor, in which they say that, while abhorring the principles of all Anarchists, they believe that public policy and order and the ends of justice will best be served by a commutation of sentence imprisonment for life. If, in view of finding the bombs in Ling's cell, this does not seem right, they pray for a reprieve of thirty days, for a thorough investigation of the matter, in order, also, that public opinion may have time to develop. The Governor will hear the petition, and also Capt. Black tomorrow.

Nina Villeta Spies.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Miss Van Zandt had a brief interview with Spies through the netting of the lawyers' cage. Mrs. Schwab, Mrs. Fielden, Mrs. Engel and Mrs. Fischer were in the visitors' cage, and had brief conversations with their husbands. Mrs. Fielden had her children with her, and the meeting between Fielden and his family was quite affecting. Anarchist Ling was visited in the County Jail by Attorney Ziesler this afternoon for the purpose of obtaining from him a statement in regard to the bombs found in his cell.

Engel Determined Not to Hang.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—This evening Engel sent out to his wife a basket of dirty dishes and soiled linen. He was so solicitous about its reaching her that suspicion was aroused and the basket searched. Hidden away between the dishes was a secret note in German to Engel's wife, stating briefly that Engel would not again attempt suicide before Friday, and that he never would die on the gallows. Every precaution will be taken to thwart his intention.
